Dear Parents/Carers

Welcome back to a new term! We have some creative things planned and children will be learning lots of new and exciting things. I am delighted to be starting my first year of teaching here at Grove Road, and I am really looking forward to spending the year with your children.

Below are some of the things we are learning this half-term in English & Maths as well as the homework expectations for this term:

Pupils should be reading for 20 minutes every night and this must be recorded in their reading records and signed by an adult. These will be checked every Monday morning. Mathletics and Reading Eggs are set every Monday for the week ahead.	Little Red Reading Hood by Lucy Rowland The Great Fire of London by Emma Adams

Our topic this half term is 'What happened in London in 1666?' We will have an exciting trip to the Gunnersbury Park Museum later in the term to bring the topic to life.

Please don't hesitate to e-mail me on green@groveroad.hounslow.sch.uk if you have any questions or concerns.

Yours sincerely,
